HAWTHORNE RACING.

Doctor Nembula, owned by Duncan Cameron and ridden by Tommy Burns, ran a mile in 1:39 1/2 and tied the track record yesterday at Hawthorne and thereby showed himself to be a horse of no mean ability. He started once before at the Cicero track and won a common race in a hard drive from Bert Davis, and judging from that race he did not seem to have a chance to beat such fast ones as Gold Fox and Tulla Fonso. Nevertheless Burns' followers stuck to him, and as Cameron and his friends knew how good the colt was they bet heavily. The consequence was that his opening price of 5 to 1 was backed down to 4 to 1 by post time. There was also a tremendous play on both Tulla Fonso and Gold Fox. It was evident from the start that the race was to be a fast one but no one dreamed it would be run as fast as it was.

Tulla Fonso was on her good behavior and had speed galore. She got away in front, and closely followed by Nickey D., started out to burn up the track. The pair went the first quarter in 24 seconds and the half in 48 1/2. At this point Nickey D. said "enough" and for an instant Tulla Fonso had things her own way. The early pace, though, told on her and when the stretch was reached it was easily seen that she was in distress. During the early part of the journey Burns had rated along in third place with Dr. Nembula and when Tulla Fonso faltered he galloped to the front and, opposite the paddock gate, seemed to be winning easily but all of a sudden up came Gold Fox on the inside with a rush and for an instant it looked very dangerous. Burns, however, was on the lookout and when Gold Fox started to go through between Dr. Nembula and the rail he promptly pulled in and shut him off. He was clear in front and had a right to do this. From the eighth post home the Doctor had Gold Fox hemmed in and consequently did not have to be hard pushed to win. When Tulla Fonso stopped she stopped all over, and was beaten off by the pair in front.

Handicapper Ed O'Malley made a strike in the fourth race. In this event there were but six starters. He is one of the few handicappers that will play his own figures, and at 30 to 1 straight and 3 to 1 to show he "set in." He is a capital "rooster" and the noise he made was so great that it almost frightened little jockey Dominick, who rode Ida Ledford, into falling off. Damocles won all right enough by a length and a half and O'Malley cashed about $2,500, but he was extremely lucky in doing so. As the race was run Ida Ledford was by far the best but Dominick seemed to get rattled and instead of sitting still and holding the filly's head up he dropped the reins, and as a last resort went to whipping. The filly did not know what was expected of her and through the stretch she ran in and out and all over the track like a vessel at sea without a rudder.

Dominick is a very small boy and did the best he could, but it seems that a small boy like this would do better if sent to the post without a whip.

The first, second and third events resulted in very hollow victories. Parmenion, with Burns up and a strong favorite at 13 to 10, won the first from a very ordinary lot of two-year-olds off by himself. He belongs to W. H. Laudeman, and the victory was popular.

The second went to Pat Garrett, and incidentally "Texas" J. H. Smith won for himself a good bet. Pat Garrett was fit and ready, and in a quiet way Smith bet quite a sum at 8 to 1 straight, 3 to 1 a place and 3 to 2 to show. Mitchell rode Pat Garrett, and getting to the front as soon as possible won off as far as he chose.

Tulane, long overdue and at the very short price of 7 to 20, easily disposed of Abe Furst and Silver Tone in the third.

Starter Dwyer had bad luck in the fifth race and sent the big field of fourteen away badly strung out. Catastrophe, who got off eighth, gradually weaved his way through and won rather handily by about two lengths from Tillie W. and Bitter Root.

Jockey W. Martin was at the track.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In the advertising department of this issue of DAILY RACING FORM will be found the formal announcement of the California Jockey Club that racing will begin over its Oakland track Saturday, September 23. A large number of horses remained over in California last spring and several stables from St. Louis and other points have already gone to the coast, so that there will probably be no lack of horses to furnish good racing. The early racing will no doubt be exclusively for purses, but the usual list of stakes will come later on.

In connection with racing at San Francisco it is worth noting that the Board of Supervisors has repealed the ordinance that resulted in the close of Ingleside last spring, and as the newly formed Western Turf Association has already given publicity to a list of stakes it appears at this date that three clubs may bid for San Francisco patronage, a situation that presages a lively time ahead.

G. W. Miller, Jim Givens and Dan Honig have just shipped a carload of racehorses to San Francisco. The best-known horse in the bunch is Miller's mare, Loving Cup, who defeated Macy at a mile in her last race at the Fair Grounds. Loving Cup is good enough to win on any track, and she ought to give a good account of herself at Frisco next winter. Givens went west with Elbe and Sen Sen, while Honig sent Katie Gibbons and Elmore to the coast.—St. Louis Republic.

Lucifer, brown horse, foaled 1874, by Leamington—Lady Motley, by Lexington, out of Anna C., by Glencoe, died at the farm of his owner, Wm. Mulkey, near Lexington Junction, Mo., recently. Lucifer was, in 1876, owned by P. Lorillard. He was a horse of fair class over a distance. He sired some winners, but was not a great success as a sire, as were some of the other sons of Leamington.

The well-known turfman, Dr. Rowell, has been appointed official veterinary of the California Jockey Club. He has examined all of the horses now quartered at Oakland track and reports them free from disease. As the eastern horses arrive they will also be compelled to pass muster—a very wise precaution on the part of the Oakland association.

The Jockey Club recently refused Edward Corrigan a trainer's license. This was, no doubt, because Mr. Corrigan some years back resorted to the courts to force the Coney Island Jockey Club to permit his colt, Huron, to run in the Futurity and then sued for second money which was withheld from him after Huron had run second to His Highness. The courts decided against Mr. Corrigan and that settled the case with him as it should have done with the Jockey Club. Its recent action was very narrow-minded and unworthy of a body that usually acts on broad lines.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Lesbia.

Post 14 minutes. Start fair. Won pulling up; second hard driven and out to the last ounce; third and fourth driving also. Parmenion is a fine-looking colt, far outclassed this lot and was in a soft spot. He was pulled almost to a walk in the final sixteenth. Orletta showed her usual fine speed and lasted longer than she ever did before. Everything considered, the price was out of line on this filly. Scarlet Lily ran a fair race. So did Myrtle Gebau, who had bad racing luck. Wallenstein tried to run out on the stretch turn. Hansford never had a winning chance. Scratched—13318 Edinborough, 118; 14177 Jake Weber, 118; 14196 Marquette, 115; 13024 Lady Mother, 115; 14309 Adair II., 118.

Winner—Ch. g. by Panique—Suspense.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily. There was not much action behind the winner. Pat Garrett was fortunate in getting away flying, always had clear sailing, and under clever handling ran a good race. Racivan could not handle the weight successfully. About 100 pounds is his measure. The Bondman ran his usual honest race. Synia had a rough journey. She got into an ugly-looking jam on the first turn. This ruined whatever chances she had of winning. Uhler was also roughly treated. In fact, he never got clear. Throw this race out for him. Juggler II. quit after going about three furlongs. The winner was entered for $300, but was run up to $605 and bought in. C. R. McLan was the runner up.

Scratched—(13910) Cuirassier, 112; 13482 Emma Smith, 109; 14292 Hanan, 109; 14320 J. J. T., 112.

Overweights—Uhler, 4 pounds; Pat Cleburne, 3; Lillian Reed, 1.

Pat Garrett, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Racivan, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. The Bondman, show, 3 to 2. Uhler, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Modred—Faux Pas.

Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily; second hand ridden; third driven out. Tulane handled his weight well and won like a gentleman. There was never a part of the road that he couldn't have gone to the front. The colt won as he pleased, but Burns was very cautious and took no chances. His costly experience on Jackanapes has evidently taught him a lesson. Abe Furst was very rank. He almost pulled Nutt out of the saddle down the backstretch when the latter tried to place him. Silver Tone about ran his race. Mark Hop Scotch at seven-eighths. He went well for a short distance.

Tulane, place, out. Abe Furst, place, 9 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Donald A.—Cousin Kate.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won whipped out; second and third were under keen pressure. Damocles' win was a lucky one. Dugan took the short route with him and saved ground all the way. He was driving the gelding hard in the last quarter. Ida Ledford, as the race was run, was much the best. Little Dominick seemed to get rattled and did everything but fall off the filly. Had he come through on the inside at the head of the stretch and thrown his whip away he could not have lost. Bertha Nell, Free Lady and Maggie Davis all hung when the pinch came. It was a false run race.

Overweights—Damocles, 4 pounds.

Damocles, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ida Ledford, place, evens; show, out. Bertha Nell, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Free Lady, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Midlothian—Misfortune.
Post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive. Catastrophe ran a game race. Conley was hard at work on him through the last quarter, and his horse under strong riding outstayed the others. At the eighth post any of the first six had a chance to win. Tillie W., poorly handled and handicapped by bad racing luck, made a good showing. Bitter Root showed much speed and seemed to be winning on the home turn but weakened in the closing drive. He pulled up quite lame. McCleary ran as if short and stopped badly at the end. This race will do him good. Jimp does not seemingly amount to much.
Neither Tappan nor Cabrillo had a chance after the start.

Scratched—14387 Mary Kinsella, 104; 14394 Chauncey Fisher, 104; (14387) Little Singer, 104; 14292 Elidad, 107.
Overweights—Jimp, 4 pounds; Annie Oldfield, 1; Catastrophe, 3.

Winner—B. c. by Portland—Clareta.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden but with something left; second driving hard; third eased up. Doctor Nembula was ridden to perfection and ran a high-class race.
Judging from this race the Doctor is a crackjack. He loafed in behind the pacemakers to the stretch and then came away on call. Gold Fox's race was a grand one. He was interfered with on the first turn and lost a lot of ground. Then Knight hustled him along and made up his lost ground too rapidly. Tulla Fonso and Nickey D. raced each other into exhaustion in the first three-quarters. Mark Rubel for early action in lower company.

Scratched—14402 Macy, 107.
Corrected weights—Nickey D., 107.
Overweights—Doctor Nembula, 1 pound; Samivel, 1.

Post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily. Bells of Orleans got away flying and outran the others easily. Post Haste ran well and hung on gamely. Herbert got much the worst of the start and ran a very good race. Mynheer and Ceylon were closing fast at the end. Dangerous Maid tired. Lady Massey ran a poor race. Estill tired badly.

Post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily. Voter ran away from his field easily and won in a slow gallop. Admission lacked her usual flight of speed and is probably not ready. PEEP O'DAY ran well and is in good form. Charentus ran his race. Box could not give the weight away but ran an honest race. Star of Bethlehem is good, and ready for his own class. Lothario ran poorly.

Winner—Ch. f. by Juvenal—Trill.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Musette is a filly of good class and her race was a fine one. Runaway Girl is a good filly also. She held the others safe easily. Oneck Queen closed gamely and likes a route. Iroquois Belle closed ground, but ran only a fair race. Motley was dry as a bone and evidently out of form. Smoke was outclassed, but ran her race. Lady Contrary and Prejudice must be classed as ordinary. Primrose Day broke down badly. Andrissa was probably short.

Post 10 minutes. Start bad. Won easily. Rare Perfume is very good at present and ran a good race. Maximo Gomez had bad racing luck, as usual of late, but closed very fast in the last furlong.
